YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

You work in an exciting and international environment and personally contribute to the success of the company. You can expect challenging tasks and projects, such as:

- / Establishing and maintaining an internal company network for identifying and prioritizing strategic innovation projects.
- / Managing strategic innovation projects in the areas of product innovation, production technologies, and (digital) business processes.
- / Managing startup relationships to build long-term partnerships, as well as representing the BSH Startup Kitchen brand internally and externally.
- / Developing the BSH Startup Kitchen strategy, as well as the operational structure and processes, including strategic planning and follow-up.

YOUR BENEFITS

- / Compensation and conditions according to the collective agreement of the metal and electrical industry (30 days of vacation, additional payments).
- / Flexible working models that adapt to your current life situation (e.g., remote work, part-time, job sharing, sabbatical).
- / Support for professional and personal development in the BSH internal Global Learning Campus.
- / Attractive employer-funded company pension plan.

YOUR PROFILE

- / Successfully completed university degree with above-average academic performance.
- / More than 2 years of professional experience in a (strategy) consulting firm or an industrial company
- / Ideally project management, strategy, or innovation experience in previous positions.
- / Excellent analytical and quantitative problem-solving skills.
- / Strong communication and teamwork skills, with the ability to collaborate effectively at all organizational levels.
